

Father Christmas wakes up on a cold and frosty morning

by Susan Brodar

Father Christmas wakes up on a cold and frosty morning.
He thinks and thinks and thinks and thinks,
"What's the date today?"

It's the 24th of December; it's Christmas Eve today.
He gets up; he looks outside and says,
"Good, it is snowing!"

He has porridge for breakfast and a cup of tea;
then he has a shower.
He gets dressed all in red, with trousers and a jacket.

He brushes his teeth; he combs his hair and does a bit of exercise.
He goes outside, for a walk, to see the reindeer.

Rudolf, *"How are you?
Let's ring those bells today!
Let's put the presents in a sack and put them on the sleigh!"*

Hurry up!!
It's time to go!
Have you wrapped the presents?

Not too big because,
you know,
they go down the chimney."
